

PRESS RELEASE

Heading: revenues for 1st quarter of 2002

Nanterre, 24 April 2002.

1st quarter 2002: revenue growth of 6%

(millions of Euros)	Q1 2002	Q1 2001	%
revenues	22.5	21.2	+ 6%
of which services revenues	19.2	18.6	+ 3%
of which licenses and equipment revenues	3.3	2.6	+ 27%

Growth amounts to 5% with constant structures. On 1 March 2002, NEURONES acquired a majority holding in an ERP integrator contributing 0.2 ME to the consolidated revenue in March. This acquisition, which was immediately earning enhancing, supplements the range offered by the group, which was already present in ERP outsourcing and support.

In a market which has been fairly depressed during the quarter, the group has asserted its capacity for adaptation and flexibility to generate an operating margin (after participation) of over 8 % of the (non-audited) revenue. The group's payroll was stable during the period.

Outlook

With the second part of the year expected to be more positive, NEURONES is maintaining its 2002 forecasts: organic, two-figure growth in revenue and an operating margin maintained at 9.6 % of revenues.
