RS2I to join the NEURONES group

RS2I, a highly-renowned player in Business Process Management (BPM), content management, Electronic Document Management (EDM) and audiovisual document & archive management, is joining the NEURONES group which further strengthens its applications segment.

RS2I is a partner of Tibco Software and Global 360 in particular.

By joining forces with RS2I, NEURONES will:

- strengthen its expertise in Service-Oriented Software Architecture (SOA),
- broaden its applications line of products and services: consulting services in organization and information systems, SAP integration, BPM and SOA integration, Web Java and .Net projects, decision-making tools,
- widen its assignments and achievements with some of its corporate customers (in the fields of insurance, media and banking specifically),
- provide innovative solutions to problems arising from certain outsourcing agreements.

Following consolidation of the scope concerned as of 1 June 2008 (annual revenues of around €7 million and past operating profitability close to 15%), NEURONES is now targeting revenues of €179 million for 2008.
